

The sole purpose of this supplementary risk assessment is to support schools for all pupils in all year groups from the beginning of the spring term 2021, while reducing the risk of coronavirus transmission

- For the purpose of this risk assessment, the term ‘coronavirus’ to refer to coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19).
- Schools must ensure that this and all their risk assessment reflects the local setting and context of the school.
- Staff and unions must be consulted with regard to this risk assessment and any changes to existing COVID 19 risk assessments.
- This supplementary risk assessment is not exhaustive and some of the controls will be dynamic.
- This should be viewed alongside relevant advice and guidance from the Department of Education and reflect any additional subsequent guidance issued to schools.
- When implemented in line with a revised risk assessment, these measures create an inherently safer environment for children and staff where the risk of transmission of infection is substantially reduced.

This provides that ideally, adults should maintain 2 metre distance from others, and where this is not possible avoid close face to face contact and minimise time spent within 1 metre of others. Ventilation		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Ensure an adequate supply of fresh air in the workplace. Good ventilation can help reduce the risk of spreading coronavirus, so focus on improving natural ventilation, preferably through fresh air or mechanical systems. 	L	L	Headteacher	Ongoing

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Where possible, consider ways to increase the supply of fresh air, for example, by opening windows and doors (unless fire doors) for 15 minutes before the start of school then 5 minutes every half hour until the end of school when they should be open for another 15 minutes • The risk of transmission through the use of ceiling and desk fans is extremely low providing there is good ventilation in the area it is being used, preferably provided by fresh air. • If you use a centralised ventilation system that removes and circulates air to different rooms it is recommended that you turn off recirculation and use a fresh air supply. Now that the milder weather is returning all air handling units should be using full fresh air where possible. • Air conditioning split systems that cool the air for individual rooms must only be used when the air temperature is above 26 deg C and there are no alternative teaching areas. It should be noted that the risk of spreading new variants within the class bubble is increased. If intending to use such air conditioning then advice should be taken from the COO.
